

Terms of Service

1. Overview

These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern your use of the Feeding Start mobile application ("App", "we", "our").

By using the App, you agree to these Terms and to the Privacy Policy.

2. Eligibility

The App is intended for adults, including parents and caregivers.

By using the App, you confirm that:

- you are at least 18 years old or otherwise legally able to accept these Terms;
 - you provide information about children only if they are under your care or responsibility;
 - the information you provide is accurate to the best of your knowledge.

3. Description of the Service

The App provides tools and informational content related to:

- infant and child feeding;
- product introduction tracking;
- meal planning;
- recipes;
- product information;
- personalized recommendations based on user input;
- subscription-based access to paid features.

The App includes both free features and paid features available through subscription.

The App may display legal documents and may record your acknowledgement of their versions.

4. Subscription

4.1 General

Some features require an active subscription.

Subscription plans may include monthly, multi-month, annual, trial, or other plans shown in the App or by the payment provider.

Access to paid features is determined based on your current subscription status.

If your subscription is not active, paid features may be unavailable.

4.2 Billing

Google Play may process mobile subscription purchases.

In limited cases where alternative payment flows are available, another payment provider may process transactions.

By purchasing a subscription, you agree that:

- payment processing is handled by the applicable payment provider;
 - prices, taxes, billing period, renewal rules, trial conditions, cancellation, and refund rules may be defined by the payment provider;
 - we do not store payment card numbers, card security codes, or full payment credentials in the App.

4.3 Auto-Renewal

Subscriptions may renew automatically unless canceled before the renewal date.

For Google Play subscriptions:

- renewal is charged by Google Play;
- cancellation and subscription management are handled through Google Play.

For other payment providers, renewal and management follow the provider's rules.

4.4 Cancellation

You may cancel your subscription through the payment provider used for purchase.

After cancellation, access may remain available until the end of the paid period if allowed by the provider.

Deleting the App from your device does not cancel a subscription.

4.5 Trial

Some subscriptions may include a free or discounted trial.

Trial terms, duration, eligibility, and conversion to paid subscription are defined by the payment provider.

After a trial ends, the subscription may convert to a paid subscription automatically unless canceled in time.

4.6 Refunds

Refunds are handled by the payment provider according to its rules, unless required otherwise by applicable law.

5. Account and Security

You are responsible for:

- maintaining access to your account;
- keeping your device secure;
- using supported authentication and local security features properly;
- ensuring that child-related data is entered only by a responsible adult.

The App may use local protection features such as PIN, pattern, biometric unlock, and encrypted data storage.

We may restrict or terminate access in case of misuse, fraud, or violation of these Terms.

6. User Responsibilities

You agree to:

- provide accurate and lawful information;
- use the App only for lawful purposes;

- not misuse the App or interfere with its operation;
 - not attempt to bypass subscription or security mechanisms;
 - not use the App in a way that harms the service or other users.

7. Health Disclaimer

The App provides informational content only.

The App:

- does not provide medical advice;
- is not a medical device or medical service;
- does not diagnose, treat, prevent, or cure any condition;
- does not replace a healthcare professional.

You are solely responsible for:

- decisions regarding feeding and nutrition;
- interpretation and use of recommendations;
- checking ingredients, allergens, and product suitability;
- consulting qualified professionals when needed.

In case of emergency or suspected severe allergic reaction, seek medical help immediately.

8. Content and Availability

We aim to keep content useful and accurate, but we do not guarantee that all information is complete, up-to-date, or suitable for every case.

Features and content may change over time.

The App may be temporarily unavailable due to maintenance, technical issues, or third-party service disruptions.

9. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law:

- use of the App is at your own risk;
- we are not responsible for decisions made based on App content;
- we are not liable for indirect or consequential damages;

- we are not responsible for failures of payment providers, app stores, devices, networks, or third-party services.

10. Account Deletion and Termination

You may stop using the App at any time.

You may request account deletion through the App or by email.

Account deletion may include a recovery period before final deletion, as described in the Privacy Policy.

We may restrict or terminate access if:

- these Terms are violated;
- misuse or fraud is detected;
- security or operational risks require restriction.

Termination of access does not cancel an active subscription. Subscriptions must be canceled through the payment provider.

11. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time.

Continued use of the App after updates means you accept the updated Terms.

12. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by applicable laws and consumer protection rules relevant to your use of the App.
